

Oleksandr Serdiuk's art is diverse in genres, stylistics and artistic manner. The painter, graphic artist, teacher, public figure, he went through the classic stages of becoming an artist: from professional mastery of drawing and realistic painting to the formal solution of the pictorial plane, abstraction and generalization. The creative output is represented by the works of a wide time range, which shows the creative evolution of the artist by virtue of cognition and reflection. An individual artistic and ethical view was formed in the Kharkiv art environment. His teacher from the Kharkiv Academy of Arts, Viktor Gontariv, an Academician of the Academy of Fine Arts of Ukraine, became his mentor in art.

Oleksandr Serdiuk was born on November 7, 1982 in a family of professional artists in Kharkiv. Father is a teacher of painting and drawing at the Kharkiv Art School, mother is a school drawing teacher. He obtained his professional art education at the Kharkiv Art School (1997-2002) and the Kharkiv State Academy of Design and Fine Arts (2002-2008). He became a member of the National Union of Artists of Ukraine in 2010. The artist received a prestigious title Honored Artist of Ukraine in 2018.
